I beg to assure Your Excellency that I am ready to enter into any more formal agreement embodying the terms of this declaration should you desire it.

Given under my hand at the Palace of Male' this

His Highness the Sultan of the Maldivian Islands to Governor the Hon. Sir A. H. Gordon, C.C.M.G.

YOUR EXCELLENCY,—WHEREAS (from the earliest times) theSubjects of the Maldivian Archipelago have been tributary to, and under the protection of, the Rulers of the Island of Ceylon, and whereas it is our annual custom to send a mission bearing tribute to the Government of Ceylon: Now I, Muhamed Muhud-din, Sultan of the Maldives, being impressed with the necessity that exists in these present times of placing this fact on record for the better ensuring my subjects and the territories under my dominion from molestation by any foreign State, do hereby acknowledge on behalf of myself, my heirs, and successors the authority of the Sovereigns of Great Britain—as represented by the Government of Ceylon—over these Islands, and I further acknowledge that I am not at liberty to enter into any negotiations or treaty regarding them with any foreign State, except through the Ruler of Ceylon, and I expressly renounce any intention of doing so.

With the object of preventing future disputes among my people, I am further desirous of being formally installed in the office of Sultan of the Maldivian Islands, by the Government of Ceylon, and I request that Your Excellency will cause the necessary arrangements for my formal investiture to be made accordingly at an early date, and that this course may in future be considered a necessary ceremonial for the installation of my successors as Sultans of these Islands.
His Highness the Sultan of the Maldive Islands to Governor the Hon. Sir A. H. Gordon, G.C.M.G.

WHEREAS it has been customary for a long time with the Sultan of the Maldive Islands to pay tribute to the English Government of Ceylon; and whereas the Government of the former has been under the protection of the Governor of Ceylon, we too are paying tribute annually to the Government of Ceylon:

Now we, Sultan Muhammadu Main-ul-din, beg that the English Government, through the Governor of Ceylon, may protect us, our Islands, and their inhabitants, as also our successors, from the incursion of foreign powers, and have this filed of record.

Further, we firmly promise that we will not enter into an agreement with any of the other Powers but the English, and will not be friendly with them.

We beg also that the Sultans of the Maldive Islands may be protected from
We beg further of the Government of Ceylon that we may be recognized as the Sultan of the Maldive Islands and installed as such, and that our successors may be similarly dealt with.

We are prepared to add any further terms to this agreement if the Government of Ceylon should desire it.

Written at our Palace at Male' on the 16th of December, 1887.
